

Organization of Fish and Wildlife Information Managers Annual Conference & Business Meeting

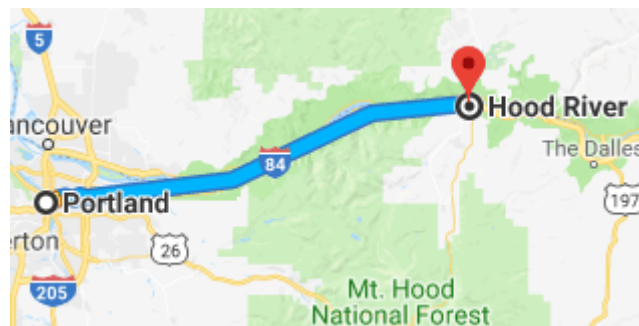

November 4th-8th, 2018 - Hood River, Oregon

Join us in Hood River, Oregon for the 26th Annual Organization of Fish and Wildlife Information Managers Conference and Business Meeting.

The 2018 theme is “Let’s Partner—Moving Forward Together”

Hood River is located 60 miles from the Portland airport, in the heart of the Columbia River Gorge. We are planning a great conference focusing on partnerships and managing information across partners and jurisdictions, we will have drone demonstrations, visits to salmon habitat restoration projects, and a panel on the local 2017 Eagle Creek Fire. Additionally, Hood River is a go-to destination for foodies, adventurers, history buffs, & adrenaline junkies. It’s brimming with scenic hiking and mountain biking trails, fishing, craft breweries, wineries, & farm fresh bounty.
